

MEET THE STRIKERS AND TALK IT OVER

ILLINOIS MINE OPERATORS
WANT ARBITRATION.

Will Talk the Matter Over--Braidwood Operators Held a Conference with the Miners in Chicago Today--Carbon Hill Men Join the Rest in Their Refusal to Wo k.

Braidwood, Ill., Nov. 16.—The center of interest in the strike of the miners of northern Illinois has suddenly been transferred from this district to Chicago. The discipline enforced by the organization has had its effect and the men have won an important concession from the operators. Today they meet the operators in conference, and it is probable that the result will be the appointment of an arbitration committee that will at least endeavor to restore harmony in the northern districts and start the mines again.

It is Secretary Ryan's belief that at least a long step in the direction of a general settlement will come out of the meeting. He said that the miners would arbitrate if there were no more than three or four operators present. If it should develop that the operators would not submit their case to arbitration, then the miners would have done their part and the public would be left to judge of the justice of their cause.

Two propositions will be submitted to the operators. They may name a minimum price and the miners a maximum, the difference to be arbitrated; or the men will lay aside the entire question of a scale and consent to the establishment of a new scale by the arbitration committee. Whatever the decision of this committee may be, the miners have bound themselves to abide by it.

The large majority of the men in the Carbon Hill mines have joined the ranks of the strikers, and at a meeting they decided that no picks should be struck in either of the two shafts.

The threat of Superintendent Ramsey of the Braceville mines to discharge all men not returning to work and to replace them with non-union men had no terrors for the miners. They did not go into the mines, neither did they take their tools. The little town was quiet and there were very few men to be seen on the streets. The Diamond mine men were also true to their pledge to the officers of the union and declined to do any mining. The Braidwood men show no inclination to go back to their shafts.

The action of the miners in the Carbon Hill mines will prevent a reduction in the wages of the men who are working in this district. When these mines were started one agreed to pay 8½ cents and the other 85 cents a ton, but when the men in the other mines returned to work at 7½ cents notice was served that the others would be reduced to those figures. The 77½-cent men are out now and the other rate will have to be maintained or a strike will follow.

It is probable that there was never before a strike of the magnitude of the present one in which such adverse circumstances were encountered and in which such fealty was displayed. There has been intense suffering all along the line. Reports are made daily of families of six and eight that have subsisted on a pound and a half of flour for two weeks. This was their portion of the distribution of relief that has been sent in by persons acquainted with the condition of the men, women and little children. Had it not been for the little garden plot, found in the rear of nearly every miner's home, there must have been many deaths from actual starvation. Now the cold weather has set in and the product of the garden is not available. The little stock that was laid by during the summer is almost exhausted and dire distress is present in many homes.

Not one house in ten has an ounce of coal with which to temper the cold winds that find their way through broken windows and cracked doors. Even if the men were to return to their work to-day there would remain a great deal of distress, for it would be some time before they would have sufficient money to provide the necessities of life.

The truth is the miner in northern Illinois is in a deplorable condition, and unless he may gain something through the medium of the proposed arbitration there is no relief in sight for him. It is seldom that he labors under greater disadvantage than in this vicinity. Here the vein is only three feet thick, and in many cases it is not more than two and one-half feet thick. The miner is not only required to dig the coal at this disadvantage, but he must build and keep the road to his room clear, and this takes a considerable portion of his time. If the wall caves or the road fills during his absence at night he must clean the dirt away, and he must at all times see that his room is safely propped. In addition to this he must see that the water does not make headway. For all this he receives no pay at all, and yet there are men who choose the life of a miner in the northern Illinois fields.

Has No Political Aspirations.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 16.—Since the election of officers of the Knights of Labor Saturday it has been whispered about among the delegates that Sovereign hopes to become the nominee of the silver, democratic party for president in 1900. Mr. Sovereign said yesterday: "I have no presidential aspirations whatever. My retirement from the Knights of Labor is not to conduct a canvass, but to devote my time partly to my own affairs and partly to work up the organization. If I did run for president, which is out of the question, I would get only the labor vote. One thing is certain, and that is, I am not a candidate for the presidency."

Must Read in English to Vote.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Nov. 16.—The Wyoming Supreme Court, in a county contested election case, decided that the educational requirement of the Wyoming constitution, which declares that no foreign-born citizen can vote in Wyoming unless able to read the constitution, means that the constitution must be read in English. Heretofore persons who could not read the constitution in English, but could read it in their own language, have been allowed to vote. The decision unseats a number of Republican county officials who were elected by such vote and gives their places to Democrats.

State Closes in Novak Case.

Vinton, Iowa, Nov. 16.—In the Novak trial Monday Dr. C. C. Griffin identified the skull as the one given him by Attorney Tobin. He found a fracture on the left back part of the skull, and found a blood clot on the inside about the size of a man's hand. The clot was caused by the fracture and had coagulated prior to death. The fracture, he said, would not necessarily cause instant death. The clot was not the result of intoxication, suffocation or asphyxiation. The skull was not of average thickness and the fracture might have been caused by a fall. The state has closed its case.

Dr. Carl Peters in Disgrace.

London, Nov. 16.—A special dispatch from Berlin says the court martial has confirmed the sentence of the lower court upon Dr. Carl Peters, former German high commissioner in Africa, ex-chairman of the German Colonial society, and the well-known Africa explorer, charged with extreme cruelty, and even worse offenses, to natives while he was commissioner in Africa in 1891. Dr. Peters is dismissed from the German service and has been ordered to pay the entire costs of the prosecution.

Inheritance Tax Law Is Good.

Helena, Mont., Nov. 16.—The state Supreme court sustained the constitutionality of the inheritance law passed by the last legislature. The law imposes a tax of 5 per cent on bequests to any beneficiary not a relative where the estate amounts to over $100. The tax on estates directly inherited where the value of the estate is over $7,500 is 1 per cent.

Death of John M. Langston.

Washington, Nov. 16.—Ex-Congressman John M. Langston of Virginia, one of the prominent colored men of the country, died here at 8:30 o'clock Monday evening. He was 68 years of age, having been born a slave in 1829. He was emancipated at the age of 6 and was educated at Oberlin, where he was graduated from the theological department in 1854.

Lots of Cash in Indiana Banks.

Indianapolis, Nov. 16.—The state auditor has received reports from the ninety-five banks in the state, and the tabulated returns show a decided increase in deposits, but a falling off in loans since the last reports. This is accounted for by the large crops of the year and the fact that the farmers, instead of being borrowers, are now depositors.

Suspicious of American Goods.

Washington, Nov. 16.—Consul Wildeman, at Hong Kong, informs the state department that the largest items of import from the United States to that place are flour and petroleum. Regarding lumber, he says there would be no trouble in selling if shipped subject to approval. Americans, he adds, have the reputation of practicing frauds in selling goods, and especially is this true of whisky of American manufacture that is sold in Hong Kong.

AN UGLY FEELING AMONG THE MEN

LYNCHING THREATENED IN SOUTHERN INDIANA.

Bank Wreckers in Danger--Heavy Losses Sustained by Depositors in the Three Banks of English, Marengo and Leavenworth--Triple Failure Worse Than Supposed.

English, Ind., Nov. 16.—The spirit of revenge is still prevalent in Crawford county, and neither R. W. Willett nor John H. Weathers, who managed the private banks at this place, Marengo and Leavenworth, has returned to the county. Willett has not been heard from. Weathers was in Corydon yesterday, and said that he would not return home, as he fears violence at the hands of the mob.

The triple failure is even worse than was at first supposed. It is now estimated that the syndicate that controlled the banks has sunk not less than $500,000 in various deals. A large amount of money was lost in the organizing of telephone companies, which were to furnish service to small towns in southern Indiana. Nine township trustees lose all the public money in their possession, amounting in all to be about $10,000. Their only relief must come through the legislature. E. P. Brown, county treasurer, loses $12,000; R. F. Clark, county clerk, $3,000, and J. C. Ballard, sheriff, $6,000. Under the state law the stockholders are liable for the full amount of their private estates and the depositors are assured that they will receive something.

All of the banks--Leavenworth, Marengo, and English--closed at once. This was on Saturday morning, and the announcement came like a clap of thunder. The people of three towns were stunned, and when they had partially recovered from the shock they began to inquire for Weathers and Willett. But they had disappeared. Willett left last Tuesday. Weathers departed Friday night, and before he left he was known to have been in the bank alone for several hours. Willett also had done a great deal of night work in the bank at Leavenworth. The people became angry. There were loud threats, and some of the more excitable talked of a rope and a short shrift. It was announced that the bank would be broken into and looted. Sheriff Walter Q. Ballard called some trusty men around him and appointed them deputies to guard the building.

Monday the people at Marengo got word that the English bank had been broken into and a crowd was formed to break into the bank there and then go to Leavenworth and open the bank at that place. Cooler counsel prevailed and there was no destruction of property or injury to persons. But in the three towns there were ropes at hand and it is openly said at this time that if either of the promoters could be found they would be summarily dealt with.

Persons familiar with the situation say that the wholesale houses of Cincinnati and Louisville, and perhaps one or two at Indianapolis, Terre Haute and Richmond will lose in the aggregate not less than $150,000. The individual losses are heavy. An uncle of Mr. Willett had $7,000 on deposit. The victim, however, says that he will spend $25,000 more to hunt the men down and see that they are punished. The merchants of English lose from $200 to $2,500 each, and the same is true in the other towns.

Three-fourths of the families in this county have been affected by this failure, and hundreds of honest men cannot pay their debts. The failure of the Haughey bank at Indianapolis or the crash of the other banks several years ago are not to be mentioned in the same list with this failure here. Conservative men say this is more than a failure--it is a calamity.

In the Belleville District.

St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 16.—The miners of the Belleville district, at a meeting held in East St. Louis, made the following decision: "We have nothing to arbitrate. We stand by the Springfield scale of 37½ cents top weight, and as soon as the operators agree to pay it the men will be ordered back to work."

The miners will meet representatives of the St. Louis Manufacturers' Association arbitration committee with this decision. They declare that unless the scale demanded is paid there will be no cessation of the strike.

Vienna, Nov. 16.—The Turkish government, in reply to the demands of Baron de Calice, the Austro-Hungarian ambassador, for the dismissal of the Vali of Adana, Asia Minor, and of the Mutessarif of Mersina, the port of Adana, for the recent indignities offered to the Austrian merchant Brazzafolli, agent at Mersina of the Austrian Lloyd Steamship company, has agreed to dismiss both officials and to salute the Austrian flag. The incident is now closed.

The congress was opened with an address of welcome by Judge Freeman of the Superior Court, after which one discussion will succeed another every afternoon and evening until Thursday evening, when the body will adjourn sine die. The topics will take a wide range, and the speakers will not all be ministers, nor all Baptists, even. As a general thing each discussion will be opened by two writers and two appointed speakers, after whom the debate will be free to all.

Blizzard Causes a Wreck.

Chadron, Neb., Nov. 16.—A severe blizzard and snowstorm is raging in this section of Nebraska. Snow has been falling in blinding sheets. As a result of the inability of engineers to see ten feet ahead of their engines, the east-bound express and a freight on the Fremont, Elkhorn & Missouri Valley railroad collided seven miles east of here. Engineer Charles Connors of the freight was seriously injured. Engineer Cooley of the passenger train fell down a sixty-foot embankment, but escaped with slight injuries. The remainder of the crews escaped without injuries. The passengers were badly shaken up, but none hurt.

Grave Charges Against Weyler.

Madrid, Nov. 16.—The semi-official Correspondencia, referring to a Havana dispatch in the New York Herald, asserting that Gen. Weyler carried off maps and other official documents concerning Cuba, says: "The gravity of the statements does not permit comment. The matter must be completely elucidated, for, if confirmed, the government will be obliged to assume an inexorable attitude."

Japan Itching for War.

NO HOPE FOR SEALS.

Agreement with Canada Now Appears Improbable.

Washington, Nov. 16.—It can be definitely stated that no agreement will be reached between the representatives of the United States and Canada now engaged in seeking an arrangement by which the seal fisheries will be protected. There is no common ground upon which a compromise can be effected.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Sir Louis Davies, representing Canada, are firm in the determination to accept no propositions providing for a cessation of pelagic sealing, unless the United States make commensurate concessions regarding other matters in dispute between the two countries.

The Canadian officials will insist that all subjects over which a contention has arisen shall be referred to a joint commission, to be hereafter appointed. This commission shall not possess plenary powers, but will have full authority to grant hearings and formulate a report for submission to those in a position to complete the necessary treaty negotiations.

There is no probability that the United States will consent to such an arrangement now. So far as this country is concerned the seal question is the only one under present consideration.

CUBA REFUSES LOAN.

Syndicate's Offer to Advance $200,000,000 Declined.

New York, Nov. 16.—Cuba has refused the offer of a loan of $200,000,000 with which to purchase her independence from Spain. Various dispatches sent out from Washington of late have stated that an enormously wealthy syndicate had offered the Cuban government a sum sufficient to buy their liberty of Spain and that it was more than probable that Cuba would accept the tender. Since the beginning of the revolution various syndicates have been formed for the purpose of terminating the war in Cuba and incidentally gaining control, if not possession, of the island. The last to make such an offer was composed of about twenty of the most prominent millionaires of St. Louis and of the east.

Opens Indiana to the Oil Men.

Anderson, Ind., Nov. 16.—Judge McClure on Monday handed down a ruling holding Indiana anti-waste natural gas laws defective. The suit was one wherein the Indiana gas companies, acting as a body, attempted to enjoin the Standard from operating, alleging they could not mine oil without wasting natural gas. Judge McClure says the law is defective inasmuch as no provision for a fine was included. This opens the Indiana gas territory to oil operators, and is a great victory for them.

Plan to Divide New York.

New York, Nov. 16.—According to a local paper the proposal to create a new state by divorcing sixteen counties of the state of New York and incorporating them as the state of Manhattan is defined in a bill which is to be introduced at the coming session of the Legislature by Assemblyman Patrick Trainor of the Thirteenth district, this city. Mr. Trainor, who is a member of Tammany Hall, presented a similar bill in the Assembly last year, but it did not get beyond a committee.

Arbitration Will Be Ignored.

Washington, Nov. 16.—It is probable that the president will make no recommendation in his message upon the subject of general arbitration. The fact he made his views clear on that subject in his inaugural address and that no arbitration treaty will be pending when the annual message is sent in makes it unnecessary to say anything further on the matter at this time.

Pennsylvania Heroes Honored.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Nov. 16.—Monday was a glorious day for the Pennsylvania veterans who came here to dedicate their monuments to war heroes for valorous conduct on the fields of Chickamauga, Missionary Ridge, Orchard Knob and Lookout Mountain. Juneau, Wis., Nov. 16.—The jury in the second trial of the Baker contested-will case in Judge Dick's court returned a verdict in favor of the contestants, Adelbert and Ruby Baker, children of Baker's first wife. Dennison Baker died in February last, leaving a large fortune to his second wife, Nancy Baker, with the exception of some small amounts to the children by his first wife and five grandchildren. The will is now set aside, and the children will come in for their legal share of the estate. An appeal to the Supreme Court will be taken.

DURRANT MANDATE TO ISSUE.

Federal Supreme Court Decides on Immediate Action.

Washington, Nov. 16.—On motion of Assistant Attorney General Anderson the Supreme court decided to issue immediately its mandate in the Durrant case. No representative of Durrant was in court when the motion was made, and the court, after a hurried consultation on the bench, announced through Chief Justice Fuller that the mandate should issue forthwith.

Mr. Anderson thinks this will settle the matter and hasten Durrant's execution. He said he would have made the motion sooner but for the necessity of giving notice to Durrant's counsel.

Supreme Court Docket Clear.

Washington, Nov. 16.—With the close of the present term of the supreme court of the United States it will have practically caught up with its docket and be in shape to take up and handle current business. For seven years it has been working laboriously to that end. Seven years ago there were 1,190 cases on the docket of the supreme court, and it was four years behind. It had become the custom of litigants seeking delays to appeal their cases to the highest court for that purpose and for that alone. This sort of business has been discouraged and made exceedingly expensive to those engaging in it, until now only real business finds its way to the supreme court. It has all told only about 300 cases on its docket, and even this small number is being reduced every day. It is the desire of the court to keep in this happy condition, so that it can be in close touch with the lower courts and enable litigation to reach swift conclusion after appealing to the highest tribunal.

Germany Avenge a Murder.

Victoria, B. C., Nov. 16.—The German warship Falke, which was dispatched from Australia on receipt of the news there of the murder of the trader, Von Hagen, returned recently from German New Guinea, having grimly avenged the savagery of the natives. The Falke steamed directly to the village in which the murderers of the late acting governor were known to be secreted and without word of parley opened fire with artillery. The Falke continued to shell the village and left no building standing.

Will Cause a Bitter Fight.

Leadville, Col., Nov. 16.—Great interest is manifested here in the reported formation of a smelter trust to regulate the price of smelting ores, etc. One of the largest mine managers of the district said to an Associated Press reporter: "The object of this smelter meeting is known to the mine owners and mine managers and as a result there is a prospect of a bitter fight, with the smelters arranged on one side and the mine managers and owners on the other."

The grain trade was not quite so

SHOPIERE MAN LOSES A HAND

Got Caught in a Corn Shredder and Painfully Hurt.

Shoppers, Nov. 17—A son of Andrew Brought had the misfortune to get his hand in a corn shredder on Saturday last losing his left hand. Those that are engaged in feeding those machines should be very careful. Miss Genie Weirick was home from Janesville the past week. The Royal Neighbors will hold their next meeting at Mrs. C. H.
Weirick's Thursday afternoon. Man-fore Moffat moved into this place last week and will work some of Jerome Shimell's land. Ledky has been building an annex to his shop the past week. Miss Kate Shimell is visiting relatives and friends in this place. A chicken supper will be given at the Congregational church on Friday evening, Nov. 19, the proceeds to be given as a donation.
All are invited to be present. Do not forget the oyster soup that will be received a dispatch on Thursday from Hartly, Iowa, that her daughter, Mrs.

found that typhoid fever was the cause of her illness. Mr. Atkinson

The plank will be delivered at Afton.
Mrs. E. A. Waters and son Ed. moved last week from the village back to their farm, while David Throne moved into the house vacated by Mrs. Waters, the genial superintendent having purchased that property during the summer. Layton's hall will be occupied during each evening of the present week by a troupe of electric bell advertisers and artists. The buildings on the James Klimer estate present a decidedly different appearance since J. F. Bolte has reshingled and repainted several of them. W. J. Miller is building a new fence around the eighty acre farm purchased by him during the summer, formerly known as the Winans property. George Atwood, who is attending Beloit college academy, was the guest of his cousin,
F. B. Eldredge, over Sunday. Ehler Krinkman was in Chicago and Lombard, Ill., last week, on business and pleasure. Several of our citizens were up at the county seat this week attending the lawsuit of Sims against the La Prairie Insurance company.

week in Edgerton, with her daughter, Mrs. Harvey. John Whitmore has remodeled his residence, which is an improvement to the same. Miss Hattie about thirty of her friends, Friday

HER AGONIES ENDED BY ANGEL'S TOUCH

MRS. CRANE LITERALLY
STARVED TO DEATH.

The Wife of the Man For Whom the Beloit G. A. R. Post Was Named Passes To the Home Beyond After An Exceptionally Painful Sickness.

Mrs. Lucy B. Crane, of Beloit, aged 66, widow of Lieut.-Col. L. H. D.
Crane, Third Wisconsin infantry, in whose honor the Line City post of the G. A. R. is named, died yesterday.

On the 9th of last September she broke one of her limbs and never arose from her bed of suffering.
Shortly after the injury she began to suffer from a stomach difficulty and literally starved to death, so that death came as a merciful relief to her agonies. Mrs. Crane had resided in Beloit forty years. She was the daughter of Major Burrall, an early resident. She married L. D. H.
Crane, who became Lieutenant Colonel of the Third Wisconsin Regiment the gallant officer who gave up his life for his country at Cedar Mountain in 1862 and in whose honor the local Grand Army Post was named. She was a lady of literary taste, a strong personality and fine attainments, whose home was ever a welcome place for friends of whom she leaves many.
She leaves one son, Mr. E. H. Crane; a daughter, Mrs. Mary Perkins, died in 1873. The funeral will be held Wednesday afternoon from the house.

KOSHKONONG EARLY SETTLERS

Buell Anniversary Brings About Memories
Of Early Days

The fiftieth anniversary of the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Buell at Fort Atkinson has started the inquiry how many heads of families are still living of those who were residents in the town of Koshkonong in 1848. As far as can be learned there are but nine of them, though further investigation may increase the number. The names are Stephen R. Abbott, J. G. Kirkland, C. P. Buell, David S. Morrison, and Halsey Bee-mer of Fort Atkinson; Robert Bridge of Chicago; Charles L. Hewitt of Smithland, Ia.; Levi Wescott of Koskkonong; and David McMillan of Lima.

BARN BURNED AT EARLY MORN

P. S. Peterson Thinks Tramps Fired His Building—Loss Is $250.

A barn owned by P. S. Peterson, 11
Maple court, burned early this morning. An alarm was turned in from box 131 at 4:10 o'clock, but the flames had a good start, and the building and contents were destroyed. The residence had a close call, the wind blowing the flames in that direction. The barn cost $250 and was insured for $100. There were no horses in the structure. Mr. Peterson thinks tramps caused the blaze.

EDGERTON DIPHTHERIA SCARE

The Tobacco Town is Having Its Share Of Trouble Now.

Diphtheria has again made its appearance in Edgerton, this time in the home of Dr. Nicholson. Five children in the Nicholson home are ill with the dread disease, but it is hoped that the disease will be checked. A good deal of anxiety is felt among the parents as to the spread of the disease inasmuch as one of the children came down in school.

MARRIED AT WATERTOWN

Kasten-Clavore Nuptial Event Was Solennized Before Many Friends

Miss Bertha Clavore of this city, was recently married at the Watertown home of Mrs. Henrietta Kasten, to Ernest Kasten of Watertown.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. Staasen. After the ceremony a reception was held at which a large number of invited friends were present. The groom is an employee at the Brandt Dent works and is well known. The bride is spoken of as a very exemplary young lady. Mr. and Mrs. Kasten have taken up their residence at 125 Kansas street.

BENNETT HAD PECULIAR CASE

Jefferson County Man Asked Heavy Damages But Jury Thought Otherwise.

Judge John B. Bennett presided at a case in Jefferson county court last week where the plaintiff claimed heavy damages on a building but where the jury brought in a verdict giving nothing to either party. The case was that of John Hunziker vs. A. J. Kohn. The plaintiff brought the suit to foreclose a lien on a building made by him at Hubbleton. The defense was that the building was very poorly constructed and several hundred dollar damages were asked as a counter claim.

TREATED CRUELLY AT MENDOTA

So Says Rosa Trautman, Who Tells Tales to Lima Friends.

Miss Rosa Trautman, at one time an inmate of the insane asylum at Mendota, has been canvassing the town of Lima of late with a pamphlet edited by herself and sister in which she complains very bitterly of the treatment that she says was accorded her in the asylum. Miss Trautman says that she will soon reveal some startling facts, but it is said that her pamphlets did not meet with ready sale.

A Word to the Grocer.

EDITOR GAZETTE—A short time ago there appeared in the Gazette's column an article from "the Grocer" lamenting the lack of a spirit of home patronage in Janesville. There seems to have come to the grocer's ear the knowledge that some people in town are sending elsewhere for their groceries.

Now there is one class of mechanics in Janesville that can truly appreciate the grocer's feelings at such a state of affairs—a class that have felt for a long time that if the grocer, the druggist, and in fact other merchants in town who handle the commodity this class produce were imbued with the spirit of home trade it would not only no their trade a great deal of good but would rebound to the good of the merchant.

There are employed at this trade in Janesville it is true only a handful of men, but should Janesville merchants ever awaken to a realizing sense of the good it would do to patronize home industries there could be employed at this trade at least one hundred more men than at present.

Would one hundred more men at this trade do our town merchants any good? We think so as these men receive fairly good wages (children cannot do their work) and without very many exceptions each man would represent a family who would need groceries, drugs, etc.

We believe there are only two grocers in town that patronize home cigar factories almost exclusively. Providing the grocer who wrote the aforementioned article was not one of these, we suggest that when he orders his next consignment of cigars he might place his order with a Janesville factory instead of a Chicago, New York, or some other factory.

FOOT BALL ELEVEN DISBANDS

Gridiron Events Have Aroused But Little Interest in Janesville

Because of the lack of financial support the High school foot ball team met and disbanded this morning. With victory perched on every corner of their banner the boys leave the gridiron with an unbeaten record. They have played with the best High school teams in southern Wisconsin and have won every game. The citizens of Janesville have never showed encouragement to the local team that is accorded other teams at home and it was mainly for this reason that the team disbanded.

FIRST PRAYER MEETING HELD

J. H. Nicholson Led the Opening Gathering Last Night.

J. H. Nicholson led the Y. M. C. A. prayer meeting last night, there being a goodly number in attendance. Each evening this week, with the exception of Thursday, meetings will be held. B. F. Dunwiddie will lead the meeting this evening, while H. A. Moehlenpach of Clinton, will preside over the meeting Wednesday evening.

Old Road Maker's Talk.

Editor Gazette:—It is always a pleasant duty to appreciate the good qualities of a public servant. I have industriously canvassed the opinion of quite a number of our citizens as to the work done by Street Commissioner George Palmer. In not one instance did I hear a single complaint. All admitted he had done the best and most permanent road making and improvement of any street commissioner the city ever had. I know he has saved the city at least one-fifth in the amount of work done for the money paid.

The old, old chronics have given place to other and more effective men, and much general improvement is plainly seen. OLD ROAD MAKER.

SIMS CASE COMES TO A SUDDEN END

CANNOT COLLECT HIS INSURANCE MONEY.

Judge Bennett Orders a Verdict For the Defense, and the Plaintiff Serves Notice That He Will Appeal to the Supreme Court—Afton Fire Causes Suit.

The case of Sims against the Mutual Fire Insurance Company of La Prairie, came to a sudden end in the circuit court today, when Judge Bennett directed a verdict in favor of the defendant.

The case hinged on whether or not the plaintiff could recover from the defendant after the sum claimed had been paid by the Chicago & Northwestern Railway company. Judge Bennett held that he could not, for the reason that the plaintiff had settled with the railway company, and given a release in full, which would bar the insurance company from maintaining an action against the railway company by writ of subrogation. Attorney Jeffris, for the defense, gave notice of an appeal to the supreme court.

This morning the calendar was called, and this case was taken up. The jury is composed of C. C. Howard, Alex. McGregor, W. B. Andrew, Harry Green, W. J. McCord, Robert Clark, Emmet Shaw, Rufus A. Barr, F. R. Helmer, S. Morgan, J. A. Denniston and R. M. Adams. The plaintiff, who resides at Afton, claims that on August 8, 1894, his dwelling, barn and outbuilding burned to the ground.

The supposition at the time was that the fire was started from a spark from a Northwestern locomotive that was passing at the time.

In 1893 Mr. Sims took out a policy for $75 in the La Prairie company which policy also covered $100 worth of hay and tools on the place belonging to Mr. George C. Antidel.

C. & N. W. Co. Paid Up

Soon after the fire, it is claimed, that the insurance company adjusted the loss with a view to settling the same. The Northwestern railroad company fearing a law suit had in the meantime sent their claim agent to Afton who effected a settlement with the plaintiff paying him and other losers the total sum of $875, receiving in exchange receipts releasing the company from any further responsibility. Now comes Mr. Sims and his attorneys and ask that the Mutual Fire Insurance Company pay up the original policy, the plaintiff claiming that his loss was fully $1800. The defendant refuse to settle claiming that as the railroad company have been released from any further responsibility they can now in no way get satisfaction from them.

George C. Antidel was the first witness called this morning, and his testimony was mostly in reference to his own personal loss.

Henry Tarrant of La Prairie, secretary of the insurance company, then took the stand. His testimony tended to show that his company had adjusted the loss and had assessed the members to pay the same, when it was found out that a settlement had been reached with the railroad company.

Winans & Russell are representing the defendant, while Fethers, Jeffris, Fifield & Mount appeared for the plaintiff.

ANOTHER TEN COUNTERFEIT

Circulation of Bad Money is Again Noticed in Southern Wisconsin.

If you happen to have a new ten dollar bill offered to you these days it would be a good idea to examine it closely. A good looking counterfeit is in circulation in this section of the state and it seems to be taking well. The description is as follows: Series 1891, check letter A, plate No. 17, signed J. Fount register; D. N. Morgan, treasurer, portrait of Hendricks, small red seal, photographic production. The face of the bill is well executed and is liable to deceive, but the numbering is poor and the seal will disclose three photographic processes. The faces are printed on two papers and pasted together. The silk fibre of the genuine issue is imitated by tracings in red and blue ink.

THE PRICE WE PAY

To Satisfy the Rapacity of Pure Food Counterfeiters.

People value their grocer in proportion to his integrity in furnishing pure food for the family use. The father of a family of children would have something to say if he discovered that harmful ingredients were introduced into the food bought for his little ones use. Sickness and suffering brought on by bad food is common. It is the price we pay to satisfy some scoundrel's rapacity.

"They unloaded a shipment of cheap coffee today while I was here" is the report from our representative while in a town where a so called "grain" coffee is made.

"The coffee roasters who furnish with low grade coffee to mix in their 'Cereal' or 'Wheat' coffee have been roasting—lbs. per day, but have just have orders to reduce the amount. This is the result of investigation of two large distributors of samples of imitations of Postum.

Their samples taste as well, on slight preparation as one could expect of a mixture of part coffee. Consumers and grocers are deceived for a time, but the pure food sentiment is strong in denunciation of food frauds and it will behoove merchants to treat their customers fairly and in an open manner. If they want coffee, sell that pure. If they want a cereal coffee, sell Postum. It is the only cereal coffee with a palatable coffee taste thus far produced that does not contain coffee or coffee essence. Some consumers may perhaps blend Postum with coffee for their own use, but the grocer's safeguard is to furnish pure goods and not fraudulent concoctions sold under the general title of "pure cereal coffee."

DUTCH MILLS USE
OUR CLAM SHELLS

LARGE SHIPMENT MADE TO HOLLAND.

Harry Daverkosen Sends the Last of the Merchantable Stock to Amsterdam Today—Anticipates a Healthy Trade When Conditions Are Readjusted—Price Was Too High.

The last of the gathered "crop" of Rock river clam shells left town today in a thirty-five ton consignment that was shipped to Amsterdam, Holland. Harry Daverkosen, the shipper, says that this lot will clean up every good shell in this vicinity.

At Amsterdam the shells will be delivered to one of the largest pearl button manufacturing firms in the world. The best part of the shells are made into buttons, while the waste is made into face powder, chicken feed, etc. All portions of the shells are utilized and there is no waste. Mr. Daverkosen has made quite a study of the shell business, and has worked up quite a trade with concerns in France and Holland. This trade, he says, gives promise of great future expansion.

Prices Were Too High.

"The prices paid for shells have been too high," said Mr. Daverkosen today. "The shells are not worth $20 a ton to any manufacturer. They cannot afford to pay $10 a ton freight on top of that price. At a price where the shells can be used profitably, the pickers can make somewhere between $12 and $18 a week. When $20 was paid they made from $1 to $10 a day. Those wages were altogether too high, and there was no profit in the business. Rock river shells are good, but they will not bring any such figures, as equally good shells can be bought for much less. They were bought at that price just as they came from the water, when they should have been assorted and graded. The best grade are not worth $20 a ton, and the poorest grade are almost valueless. Hence it will be seen that business cannot be done on that basis. Samples sent to manufacturers were not graded, and the shells from Rock river got a black eye to start with.

Exports European Trade.

"If I go into the shell business next summer, I will buy shells on the basis mentioned, I will pay what they are worth according to grade. In this way I expect to get a reputation for our shells and develop a business that will put much money in circulation here. American manufacturers can get shells very cheap, as they buy them near their places of business and save heavy freight charges. This competition would make Rock County shells rather expensive to Eastern concerns to use, but I think I can work up a nice trade with European manufacturers. I recently sent a lot of shells to France and with this shipment to Holland, I think I have cleared away all the good shells in this vicinity. I am thinking of engaging in the trade and know that searchers can make good wages gathering clams. The big wages of the summer cannot be earned again, however. They were out of all proportion."

OPEN THE MISSION TOMORROW

A Public Service Will Be Held in the Evening.

The doors of the Janesville mission home will be thrown open to the public tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock. It will be known as the "Mary Kimball Mission." Rev. M. C. Miner of Evansville, who for eight years was a missionary to India, will be present and will speak on his experience in that far away land. Luncheon will be served to all who attend. All are requested to bring their gospel hymns.

While expressing their confidence in Receiver Towne, the committee believes that the best results can be secured by the appointing of a new receiver on account of the relationship between Mr. Towne and the president of the late bank. HEAR THE LECTURE
THAT STIRRED G.A.R.

PROF. FREEMAN TO TELL OF SHERMAN.

Address That Opens the Rock County Teachers Association's Course Will Be of Unusual Interest—Delivered at Buffalo Encampment—Plan For the Course.

A lecture that awakened great enthusiasm among the veterans at the national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic at Buffalo, will be heard in this city on the evening of December 3.

It is entitled "The Last Great Heroes of the Civil War," and will be delivered by Professor Freeman, who holds the chair of English Literature at the state university.

The lecture is a popular one, and will be of great interest to all people but more especially to the veterans of "the late unpleasantness." It will be under the auspices of the city teachers, but will also open the course of lectures to be given under the auspices of the Rock County Teachers Association.

When Professor Freeman delivered it at the national encampment, he was given an ovation. Considerable prominence is given to General Sherman. Professor Freeman reviewing his civil and military career at length. He also tells much about the Atlanta campaign and the march to the sea. To Janesville and Rock county soldiers who took part in these campaigns, the lecture will be of exceptional interest.

An admission fee will be charged, and the public will be made welcome.

The members of the teachers' association are making plans for a thorough course of study this winter. The lecture course that will open with Prof. Freeman's lecture, will run through the school year. Noted educators will talk to the members, and the lectures will be held on an average of once a month. With the exception of Professor Freeman's lecture, however, the addresses are likely to deal with technical matters, and will hardly be of interest to others than the teachers themselves.

WOMAN'S WORLD.

A JERSEY CITY WOMAN WHO IS NOTED AS AN EGYPTOLOGIST.

New Occupations For Women—The Buffalo Women's Union—Radcliffe College Girls—Latest in Waists and Blouses—Even in the Kiosks.

Mrs. Eunice L. W. Rowbottom of Jersey City is the probable Amelia B. Edwards, or American Egyptologist, of the future. She has studied diligently for ten years, has lectured successfully in different cities and will devote her time in future to the platform and to translating papyri and exhaustive travel and exploration in Egypt.

Mrs. Rowbottom is a young and attractive woman, a devoted mother and an accomplished housewife. Her father was a professor of Greek, and through his influence and association she became, early in life, an oriental scholar.

Ten years ago, when recovering from an illness, some friend sent her a copy of "Ten Thousand Miles Up the Nile." This she read with avidity, and while still confined to her bed she taught herself hieroglyphics and Egyptian mythology, after which she read Egyptian history, literature, fiction, poetry, essays and Egyptian commonplaces—in short, everything that has any bearing whatever on the subject. The Jersey City library, proud of her researches, has sent abroad and procured works for her special use. "The Egyptian Ritual of Life and Death," which is known as "The Book of the Dead," Mrs. Rowbottom found it almost impossible to get at the Astor library in New York, where, because the book is so rare, an attendant was detailed to watch at her elbow while she read it. In Brooklyn the library authorities charged her for its perusal. So the Jersey City library sent abroad for a copy of this original literary treasure.

Mrs. Rowbottom is now translating a papyrus which is the story of Queen Hatsuta's voyage to the land of Punt. Queen Hatsuta introduced sailing vessels and was a together progressive. She was the "new woman" of her time. Envoys came to her from all over the world, and the queen, clever woman that she was, always went out to meet such personages dressed in the national costume of her visitor. Moreover, she invariably assumed at such times the peculiar dialect of her guest, a combination of dress and language which never failed to make her popular.

Queen Hatsuta reigned 50 years, Mrs. Rowbottom says, and she it was undoubtedly who originated the Suez canal, because when De Lesseps made his excavations he found her cartouche on the stones. She sent an expedition to the land of Punt for myrrh, in addition to which her ships brought back pygmies and green monkeys. This queen was even more advanced than Elizabeth of England, for her reign was all for peace and progress in the arts, particularly in architecture. She was a Pharaoh, and as such her rank obliged her to learn architecture.

In this good queen's old age her adopted son, who was her nephew, found some way of getting rid of her, whether by assassination or seclusion no one knows.

"Women," says Mrs. Rowbottom, "were highly enlightened and very scholarly in Queen Hatsuta's day. They were, too, supreme in their own households. If they desired their husbands not to enter, all they had to do was to put their little shoes outside the door. When on the throne, Queen Hatsuta always wore a sort of bloomers, the dress of the male pharaohs, which was in reality an accordion plaited divided skirt, worn under a short toga. This was when Egypt was in its prime. The women were finely educated, the children were never irreverent.

"Men settled ten times as much money on their mothers as upon any other member of their families, and the following words are from the court poet, Ptahhotep: 'Remember thy mother. Did she not suffer for thee, and shouldst thou not gladly care for her now?'"—Jennie Hopkins Seibold in Chicago Record.

New Occupations For Women.

It is a rare thing nowadays to hear a woman say, "I can't find anything to do." English women contend that American women are never at a loss to find employment. In view of some of the odd industries that give a livelihood to women here this seems more than half true.

Mrs. Barotti, in Chicago, makes a good income by conducting a nut cracking establishment. This is an innovation and one that pays well. Nuts are cracked at other places in Chicago, but Mrs. Barotti's establishment is the one best known to confectioners, street vendors and the best known society people. At this season Mrs. Barotti's business has a boom and will continue to increase until after the Christmas holidays. Her place of business is a long, narrow room opening on the street. Down the center extends a long table surrounded by men, women and children. In front of each person is a square iron slab with nuts piled high on one side of it. Each worker has a hammer and pegs away from morning until night. Skill is required to extract the meats without breaking them. A good nut cracker can crack out about 16 pounds of nice clean nuts a day. For that amount the cracker receives $2 or a little more. In the busy season Mrs. Barotti employs from 30 to 50 hands.

A Philadelphia woman has hit on a novel plan of converting muscle into cash. When her husband, a laboring man, died, leaving her with four small children with healthy appetites, she decided to become a professional cleaner of kitchen floors. She has worked her specialty to advantage and is so efficient that her regular customers would as soon think of allowing a plumber to tune a grand piano as to permit any one else to touch their kitchen floors.

Many kitchen floors nowadays are made of hard wood or tiles or are covered with oilcloth or linoleum. An expert can clean them with great rapidity, as this woman has proved. She makes the average floor as neat as wax in half an hour and charges only 25 cents for doing so. She carries her own tools, soaps and cloths for getting the dirt off and putting the shine on and leaves things spick and span behind her. For each customer she has a certain half hour on a certain day. She is an exact woman, and knowing this, her customers have the kitchen ready for her. She earns from $3 to $4 a day and says she likes the work better than standing behind a counter.

For some time a number of women in New York have been doing professional mending. Expertness with the needle is the only preparation necessary for this business. The menders are missionaries in a way, for they seek out bachelors at their boarding houses, apartments and hotels and make a contract to keep buttons on coats, vests and trousers, to darn hose and to close up rents in clothing. The price charged for such service varies according to the size of a man's wardrobe.

This scheme of a perambulating repair shop appeals to the average man, for it means money in his pocket. Tailors charge good round sums for old jobs, and a woman fixes up many things that a tailor would not touch. It is easier, too, to have a woman drop in, while a man is away at business, and rid him of all the worry about the condition of his clothes. The mender visits her customers at stated intervals.—New York Sun.

The Buffalo Women's Union.

The Buffalo Women's union is a strong nonsectarian association where Protestant, Catholic and Hebrew and those of no church at all, laying aside all differences of creed or tradition, have come together on an equal footing to work for a common good. Sometimes its work is misunderstood because of the practical name. For illustration, a forlorn woman came to the president one day with a complaint that she had been defrauded and desired the aid of the protective committee, and when asked if she had made any effort to collect her claim she made this rather startling assertion: "Oh, no I am a Christian. I cannot fight. It would not do for me, so I came to you." The difference between nonsectarian and non-religious is clearly defined, and while there is no outward religious observance the union effort in its deep significance touches at the roots of what is highest and noblest in life. In a recent essay on the "Art of Living Together" is the following apt illustration: A Chinaman, in his far off land, went to a missionary to be baptized. Being a stranger, the good man asked where he had heard the gospel, and the answer came, "I have not heard the gospel, but I have seen it."

The union aims to be a thought center. It stands for liberal fellowship, progressive education, home ideals and free hearted hospitality. It demands and receives the loyal service of good women because of its high ideals. These are some of the underlying principles which are the foundation of the Women's Educational and Industrial union. We long to extend our borders, to see the number of unions in our own and other lands increased. Similar organizations already exist in Paris, London and Geneva. It costs little to begin. Enthusiasm, consecration of purpose and a little money are needed.

The Buffalo union began its work with the sum of $65, received from membership dues. In every town and city the protective work is needed. Women, because of ignorance of the law, are often defrauded, innocent girls and helpless children fall victims to bad men, and brave women must stand for them in these days of political corruption if justice is to prevail. To extend the helping hand to the friendless and persecuted woman, not condoning her mistakes if she has made them, but, in view of human weakness, rendering sympathy and aid, should be the most blessed privilege of the pure and happy woman everywhere. The Buffalo union has entered the fourteenth year of practical work for its city and state.—Harper's Bazar.

FROM THE LONE STAR STATE comes the following letter, written by W. F. Gass, editor of the Mt. Vernon, (Tex.) Herald. "I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in my family for the past year, and find it the best remedy for colic and diarrhoea that I have ever tried. Its effects are instantaneous and I cheerfully recommend it, especially for cramp colic and diarrhoea. Indeed, we shall try and keep a bottle of it on our medicine shelf as long as we keep our families. For sale by C. D. Stevens, Pharmacist, Corner Main and Milwaukee Sts."

M. Romas Is Elected.

Athens, Nov. 16.—M. Romas, the Delianist candidate, was elected president of the chamber of deputies to-day by a vote of 83 to 64. Eleven deputies refrained from voting.

A HEALTHY WIFE

Is a Husband's Inspiration.

A sickly, half-dead-and-alive woman, especially when she is the mother of a family, is a damper to all joyousness in the home. I sometimes marvel at the patience of some husbands.

If a woman finds that her energies are flagging and that everything tires her, her sleep is disturbed by horrible dreams, and that she often wakes suddenly in the night with a feeling of suffocation and alarm, she must at once regain her strength. It matters not where she lives, she can write a letter. Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., will reply promptly and without charge. The following shows the power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, accompanied with a letter of advice:

"Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—I have suffered for over two years with falling, enlargement and ulceration of the womb, and this spring, being in such a weakened condition, caused me to flow for nearly six months. Some time ago, urged by friends, I wrote to you for advice. After using the treatment which you advised for a short time, that terrible flow stopped. I am now gaining strength and flesh and have better health than I have had for the past ten years. I wish to say to all distressed suffering women, do not suffer longer, when there is one so kind and willing to aid you."—Mrs. F. S. BENNETT, Westphalia, Kans.

The New Lake Shore Limited.

It is believed that perfection in car construction has been reached in the equipment of this train. The New York sleeper, for example, is composed of ten sections and two staterooms. Two of the sections at each end of the car are separated by partitions, thereby making them almost as exclusive as staterooms. One of the staterooms in this car is upholstered in red silk tapestry with draperies, carpet, etc., to harmonize. The other stateroom is upholstered in light green tapestry, with green draperies, etc. to correspond. The staterooms have the usual annexes and accommodations. The car has also an elegantly combined smoking and washroom. It is very richly inlaid, upholstered in plate olive green plush, and draped with rich silk draperies. One particular beautiful feature of this room, as also of the ladies' toilet room, are mirrors over the wash stand. The inlaid work is of very exquisite design, and the frame work is supported by turned columns, brass caps and bases, the columns being inlaid with running vines. The car is built entirely of mahogany, finished with inlaid work and mosaic lines. It is remarkable for its plain, natural effect, there being no moldings, and entirely plain services are seen in all directions. The doors are of solid wood, broken with inlaid lines and mosaic work. The ceilings are dome shape, the high lights being ornamented with gold. The upholstery of the body of the car is an olive green special pattern. The general style of decoration is known as the Coolidge inlaid design.

The Limited leaves Chicago every day at 5:30 p. m., reaching New York at 6:30 p. m., Boston 9:05 p. m., next day. J. E. HOBLEY, T. P. A., 100 Wisconsin St., Milwaukee, Wis.

A Little More Cost Brings Big Profits.

The addressing, folding, inclosing, sealing and stamping of five thousand circulars, with postage, will cost at least $65, whether the circular is good or bad. Notwithstanding this fixed charge, some strive to save a dollar or two on the cost of printing, although the goods advertised are to be judged by the character of the printing, just as a house is judged by the character of its salesmen. Good printing costs but little more, and that "little more" brings greater returns than any other part of the cost. Order your printing where good work is assured.
